It is a matter of great pleasure to express that by being abided to the guidelines of UGC's initiate "Fit India Campaign", Nirwan University Jaipur has organized Chess Tournament from 02.00 p.m. to 04:30 p.m. on 27th of April, 2023.

As per our cultural values and traditional beliefs, the event was opened with the worship of the Goddess of knowledge and wisdom, Maa Saraswati by lightening of lamp (Gyan-Jyoti). The Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar, Deans and Principals of various colleges jointly worshipped the goddess of knowledge and wisdom by lighting of the lamp and the entire faculty, staff and students have witnessed the mesmerizing moment. Afterwards, the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. (Dr) Arvind Agrawal declared the activity opened. The renowned educationist, Prof. Agrawal also shared his precious words of blessings and motivation. Both, the students and the faculty/staff members have shown great enthusiasm by their willing participation.

Twelve students participated in the tournament (A group and B group) and, after a rigorous competition, a student of B.Sc. Nursing named Mohit remained the winner and a student of M.Sc. Botany Amit remained the runner-up.

The activity was closed with the chanting of our pride, the National Anthem.
