Brief Report of The Event

Oath Ceremony Nasha Mukta Bharat Abhiyaan (NMBA) (August 06, 2024)

Nirwan University, Jaipur, took a significant step towards contributing to a healthier and more responsible society by organizing an Oath Ceremony on August 13, 2024, under the Drug-Free India Campaign. The event was hosted by the university's Yoga & Wellness Center (OJAS), reflecting the institution's commitment to promoting a drug-free lifestyle among its students and the larger community.

The primary objective of the Oath Ceremony was to raise awareness about the dangers of drug abuse and to encourage students, faculty, and staff to pledge themselves to a life free from drugs. The event aimed to foster a culture of wellness and responsibility, aligning with the national mission of creating a drug-free India. The Event was coordinated by Dr. Krishna Agarwal, assistant professor School of yoga and Physical Education
