Notice

The NSS Cell of Nirwan University Jaipur, is organizing a Special Camping Programme from March 24 to March 30, 2025 (7 days). This camp will be conducted in the adopted villages of Nirwan University, namely Jhar, Banskoh, Jatwada, Dhamsya, and Khor.

As per the directives of the university administration, participation in this camp is mandatory for all NSS volunteers. Attendance is compulsory, and failure to participate without a valid reason will result in disciplinary action.

The primary objective of this camp is to engage students in community service, social awareness, and rural development initiatives, aligning with the core values of the National Service Scheme (NSS). Volunteers will actively contribute to various activities, including cleanliness drives, awareness campaigns, and community welfare Programmes.

To ensure the smooth execution of the camp, Dr. Vijay Laxmi, Mr. Vikash Choudhary, and Dr. Narendra Bhinda are hereby appointed as the coordinators of this Programme. They are directed to oversee all arrangements, including logistics, volunteer participation, and collaboration with local authorities for the effective implementation of the camp activities.

All concerned departments and faculty members are requested to extend their cooperation in making this initiative a success.
